

Countesthorpe Triple 2023-2024

Portsmouth - Sunday 12th November 2023
Worcester - Sunday 10th December 2023
WA18m - 21 January 2024 – organised by LAOFAC

The Countesthorpe Triple will be shot over three rounds – The Foxes UK Record Status Portsmouth on 12th November 2023, The Foxes UK Record Status Worcester on 10th December 2023, and LAOFAC's UK Record Status WA18m in January 2024.

A separate entry form is required for each round of the Countesthorpe Triple and the Countesthorpe Triple itself. Competitors are responsible for making sure that they enter each of the separate stages. Entries for the Countesthorpe Triple must be received by The Foxes on or before 12th November 2023.

Awards Awards will be presented to Lady and Gentlemen archers in four categories (Barebow, Compound, Longbow and Recurve) depending on the number of entrants and at the discretion of The Foxes Archery Club. Junior awards will also be given, depending on the number of entrants.

Handicap For the Handicap Adjusted Award for the Countesthorpe Triple only, the handicap used will be that used for awards for the Portsmouth competition held on 12th November 2023. Winners of a place award in each category are not eligible for a handicap award.

Junior Awards For the Countesthorpe Triple awards only, the age group used for Junior awards will be the one used for each archer at the Portsmouth held on 12th November 2023 (the age groups used for Junior awards for the Worcester and WA18m will be the relevant age group as defined by AGB and WA rules).
